

Join Geauga Park District for an exciting season of recycled workshops.

GEAUGA PARK
DISTRICT

Objects you might ordinarily toss out with the trash can be repurposed as unique pieces of art and decorations for the upcoming holidays. Work with artists to find new life in old familiar things.

Check out these upcoming workshops!

Got Stuff? The Art of Collage Workshop (Ages 16+)

*Monday, November 16, 6:30-8:30 PM
The West Woods Nature Center*

Join artist MaryAnn Sedivy to create a collage; participants may bring old greeting cards, wrapping paper, ribbon, buttons and fabric to include in their piece. $12 fee.

"recreARTed" Holiday Creations (Ages 15+)

*Thursday, November 19, 6:30-8:30 PM
The West Woods Nature Center*

Join artist Jan Urbanick to transform discarded objects such as light bulbs, soda bottles and other household castoffs, into clever & creative holiday decorations. $14 fee.

discARTed Family Day

*Sunday, December 27, 1:00-4:00 PM
The West Woods Nature Center*

Create make-n-take projects from recycled materials as well as view the discARTed exhibition. Discover how unlikely objects can be transformed into items of function and beauty. FREE for the whole family!

discARTed Wire Basket Workshop

*Tuesday, January 12, 6:30-8:30 PM
The West Woods Nature Center*

Join artist Jan Urbanick to explore basket construction with alternative materials and create a small sculptural basket. $14.00 fee.

Trash to Treasure: Jewelry from Recycled Materials (Ages 14+)

*Tuesday, January 19, 6:30-8:30 PM
The West Woods Nature Center*

Join artist Maryann Sedivy to design and create earrings, a bracelet or necklace from discarded jewelry, old buttons, washers, wire and other recyclable materials. Bring your own found materials (optional). $12.00 fee. 